Mr. Prime Minister,
There is perhaps only one firm I think is a sham, and your hosts have found them.
Are they good? No.
We know them VERY well.
Their guy who claims to be a serious intel expert makes up his entire background, transforming himself from a mid-level analyst into James Bond + a delta force soldier. I've seen his charade in action and it is a stunning, nearly psychotic, production.
The rest of the team is washed up, tired and low talent.
They are a front- end sales mechanism through a mediocre diplomat that "makes it up as they go along" by hiring retired low-level government folks who lie about their skills and background.
Sorry to be so strong, but these guys are silly con men.
I hope your trip is going well,
RP

Mr. Prime Minister:

Our team has thoroughly researched your questions about the defense and security establishment in Cote d'Ivoire and we have put together an addendum to our original briefing report for you. The majority of insights and data in this addendum come from our trusted sources, whom we re-engaged over the past two days.

Click here to download the Cote d'Ivoire Briefing Addendum (same password as original report)

We hope this supplement will sufficiently address your questions. Please let us know if there is any additional assistance we can provide. Wishing you the best for a successful trip. Safe travels.

Best,
Evan
